SING OUR GROW AND CHANGE SONG

STORYTIME – WHERE IS CATERPILLAR?

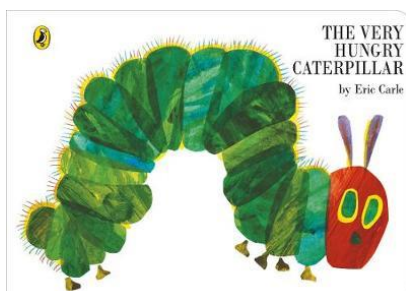

Little Teddy was upset. A little while ago, his good friend, Caterpillar, had vanished during a game of hide and seek, and was still nowhere to be found. Little Teddy had looked and looked. "Never mind," yawned Kitten.

"It's too hot to play; come and lie in the sun."
"I could call him with my loud woofs," said Puppy.
"Big Teddy says he can hear me everywhere."
"I like Caterpillar," said Lamb; "he's very good at hide and seek – and hop scotch too."
"There's a funny, lumpy thing on my special bush," reported Duckling, "but it's not a leaf."
"It's wriggling!" exclaimed Little Teddy. "Big Teddy, Big Teddy – HELP!"
Big Teddy rushed to the rescue and hugged Little Teddy as they watched the wriggly leaf.
"Don't worry," he whispered, "just watch."
The wriggly leaf split open and everyone tried to climb on Big Teddy for safety. Then out came and funny, squashy thing that crawled into the sunshine, and clung to a twig, panting.
"That's odd," observed Kitten. "The face of that new wriggly, thing looks a bit like Cedric."
"I am Cedric," puffed the wriggly thing, smiling.
"Caterpillars change, you know; I'm a butterfly."
"Well," admitted Little Teddy, "you are definitely the best at hide and seek! I'd never have guessed you'd hide in a cress and change like that."
Time for Sleeping Bunnies," said Lamb.

PARENT MOMENT

Timon and Pumbaa sing THE LION SLEEPS TONIGHT unaware that a real lion (Simba) is wide awake – reminds me of singing all those lullabies!

PLEASE PRAY for little ELIZA HILLIARD (5) who has been diagnosed with a brain tumour. She will be going up to Liverpool on Monday 10 August for scans on Tuesday and an operation likely to be on Thursday 13. Mum is Claire, Dad is Nick, sisters Sophie (3) and baby Lucy (4 months). Charlotte Smith is co-ordinating communications so that the family has some peace, so do email via Charlotte: charlotterdumas@gmail.com

CLIVE is on holiday, so on FRIDAYS at 4pm there will be a GENR8 video each week. The link is posted on our church FACEBOOK PAGE.

Do join us on Wednesdays between 10am and 12 noon, for our completely informal PICNICS IN THE PARK around Great Shelford rec. Anyone who comes should join with one or two other families only, should respect social distancing, bringing their own rugs and snacks.
